

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Quantitative Services Group LLC (QSG) Continues the Expansion of its IT Group

Naperville, IL (November 29, 2006), In a continuing effort to deliver the finest investment solutions to sophisticated equity investors, Quantitative Services Group, LLC (QSG) add another talented developer to it's Information Technology Group. Ms. Xin Liu has joined QSG as a Senior Technology Analyst.

Xin Liu has been structuring financial data solutions for more than a decade. Prior to joining QSG, Xin worked at FactSet Research Systems Inc. "I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to the exciting new solutions QSG is developing for equity portfolio managers and traders," stated Ms. Liu. Xin Liu will be responsible for optimizing a wide array of customer and database information exchanges. "Our clients expect QSG to deliver the best stock selection signals and trading insights in the industry. We accomplish this by leveraging substantial amounts of data and computing power," says Tim Sargent, QSG's President. "Xin will instrumental in assuring that we are using the most powerful technologies within an architecture that delivers a scalable advantage to our clients."

QSG's Information Technology Group supports the development of QSG's client facing applications. In addition, they've delivered a number of customized analysis systems to the industry's largest financial institutions. These custom solutions deliver compelling cost/benefit ratios and significantly speed time to market at a time when institutions are increasing relying on outsourced technology solutions.
